Upcoming Events

Saturday Day of Service – Rescheduled
Join us on Tuesday, April 14th from 12:00-5:00 pm to volunteer for the Annual Spring Cleanup Event with Keep Huntingdon County Beautiful! We will be volunteering along Route 829 south of Mill Creek; the cleanup will focus on an illegal dump site nearby, an effort that was started last fall. Keep Huntingdon County Beautiful already removed nearly 2.5 tons of garbage and 40 some tires from this site, but there is still more to do. With a good volunteer turnout, we should be able to complete this site! To sign up, please follow this link:
https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1hRVbpLfiYwnvvC s88hZNAyRholosgD2HLDdF0JU2LM/viewform

Community Organizers Wanted – Info Session
DART is hosting one final information session on Wed., April 1 to talk with individuals interested in learning more about our career opportunities in grassroots community organizing. The DART network is gearing up for an exciting spring action season. Our ten organizations in Florida are working to address the state's high levels of incarceration through expanded use of civil citations for non-serious offenders. The Charleston group is working to combat wage theft in their city. And in Lawrence, KS, the newest organization in the DART network -- Justice Matters -- anticipates 2,000 people in attendance at its first direct action assembly to address their city's lack of affordable housing and access to mental healthcare. At DART, we believe powerlessness is the root cause of community problems. We unite low- and moderate-income communities to build power and achieve social, economic and racial justice. Register at www.thedartcenter.org/events

Liturgical Minister Schedule
March 29, 2015

Set-up
David Paul

Hospitality
Cameron Westerlund
Theresa Uniacke

Lectors
1st – Christina Estright
2nd – Veronica Kirchner
3rd – Brittany Jasper

Gospel Narrator
Kim Proenca
Voice – David Paul
Crowd – Marissa Dougherty

Cantor
Katie Shelledy

Pianist
Lois Kyper

Palms
Maddy DeAngelis
Need volunteer

Candles
Anthony Downey
Alex White

Incense
Need volunteer

There will be a no Catholic Council meeting on Monday, March 30.
Liturgical Reflections

Today is Palm Sunday of the Lord’s Passion. The Church names this Holy Week. Of all the weeks in the year, this is the holiest. We carry our blessed palms as we enter the holy city Jerusalem. In Jerusalem we will die and rise with our Lord this week. We have had forty days to name those things that must die so that we can rise to new life with Christ. Holy Thursday evening we will gather in the upper room with the Lord; we will meet him Good Friday on Calvary; we will pray outside his tomb Holy Saturday; and on Easter we will proclaim the joyful praises of the Church for all that God has done for us. Take your palms home and place them prominently to recall the glory of this week.

2015, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 South Logan Blvd, Hollidaysburg, PA 16648

Palm Sunday

~Mother Teresa

Liturgical Minister Recognition

We will be recognizing and honoring all our Liturgical Ministers following Mass on Sunday, April 12. Please plan to join us for this special occasion followed by a reception of light refreshments.

March 29

Mk 14:1-15:47

The Passion of Jesus makes it clear, no one escapes suffering. Suffering is inevitable but no one should suffer alone. That is one of the primary roles of families, to stand with and support each other in suffering.

Sunday Mass Schedule

Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church
Sixth and Washington Streets
814-643-0160

Saturday: 5:00 pm
Sunday 8:00 am and 11:00 am The times for weekday Masses vary from day to day. If you would like to know the times, please call the church at the above number.

The webpage for Most Holy Trinity has numerous resources and links for those seeking information on the Catholic faith or doing research for a class. Check out www.mhtcc.org

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Available upon request at Juniata College.

Contact Fr. David to set up a time: also available at Most Holy Trinity.

Mass Intentions

If you would like to schedule an intention for Mass in memory of a deceased loved one or to pray for someone who is sick or infirm, contact the Campus Ministry Office. A $10 donation is requested.

“It is not how much you do but how much love you put into the doing that matters.”

~Mother Teresa