Position Title: PULSE Fellow

Position Type: Year of Service

Description: Year-long service and leadership fellowship

Position Purpose:
PULSE (www.pulsepittsburgh.org) cultivates a community of young servant leaders to transform Pittsburgh. We invite talented university graduates to partner with Pittsburgh nonprofits for a year of service and leadership. PULSE fellows (PULSErs) work in a Pittsburgh nonprofit, live with other fellows in intentional community and participate in ongoing leadership training and development. Through all our activities, we equip and develop young people to be civic and community leaders with a heart for service.

Responsibilities:
- Serve 35 hours/week for 11 months (beginning of September-end of July) in a Pittsburgh nonprofit connected to your vocational interests and nonprofit staffing needs. Check out some of our previous nonprofit partners at http://pulsepittsburgh.org/partner-with-us/past-partners/.
- Live in intentional community in PULSE houses on the East End or Northside of Pittsburgh.
- Participate in leadership training and development (weekly seminars, retreats, mentoring, one-on-one coaching, orientation, etc.)

Location:
- Pittsburgh, PA - Participants will serve at a nonprofit in the greater Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania area and live in one of East End or Northside neighborhoods of Pittsburgh.

Benefits:
PULSE fellows are provided with food, lodging, transportation, some reimbursable health insurance expenses, and a monthly stipend. If available, fellows are eligible to receive the AmeriCorps Education Award.

Interested candidates should apply online at: http://pulsepittsburgh.org/serve-with-us/

Application deadlines are:
- November 1st, 2015
- March 1st, 2016
- June 1st, 2016
