

Schedule for March 28th PA – Campus Compact Conference hosted by Juniata College (Huntingdon, PA) in partnership with St. Francis University - “Inspiring Citizenship Through Community Engaged Teaching and Learning”

Registration fee for faculty and staff $35

Registration for Community Partner Organizations $10 (the registration fee for the first 20 Community Partners to register will be covered by a generous grant from Standing Stone Coffee Company)

We welcome presentation and poster proposals related to best practices and evidence based strategies for successful community engaged teaching and learning from across the curriculum and co-curriculum, and across disciplines. Proposals are sought for presentations and posters related to successful community engagement strategies that specifically inform the practice of community engaged teaching and learning through program design, community outreach and partnership models, publicly engaged scholarship, curricular and co-curricular models, institutional policies and practices, and assessment strategies. Presenters should indicate how the proposal relates back to the conference theme and with which of the above topics it best aligns. Proposals should not be more than 500 words and should be submitted to Sarah Worley (worley@juniata.edu) by March 1st.
