

What is the Juniatian?

The Juniatian is the student-run campus newspaper advised by Professor Will Dickey. Students can contribute to the production of the newspaper by participating in the Writing Practicum class.

The Juniatian includes articles on controversial topics such as gender neutral bathrooms, sports debates, opinion pieces, movie review and advice, and many others.

Will Dickey, Faculty Advisor

Contact Information:

Dickey@juniata.edu

814-641-3723

Founders Hall 416

Join The Juniatian

Comment
Contribute
Create
Community

Join Our Team!

Roles	Tasks
Editor-in-chief 	Edits material for final print, aids in running class meetings, and facilitates communication among staff members.
Section Editors 	Edits for grammar, mechanics, and then submits the articles to be copyedited and reviewed by Professor Dickey and the Editor-in-Chief.
Photographer 	Receives photo requests from writers/editors, takes staff photos for articles, and takes photos for each article that requires them.
Layout &amp; Design 	Place the articles in appropriate formats, Fit in photos and other material so that columns fit together nicely.
Writer 	All writers must MEET DEADLINES, write a rough draft (700 or more words), attend group meetings, edit their article, submit articles to Google Doc, and submit two new/unique ideas for the following issue.

Collaborate with Collegial Campus Colleagues!

How to enroll in The Juniatian!

For incoming students, please register for:
EN 181 01 – Writing Practicum for two credits

or
Contact Professor Dickey to arrange
Non-credit (audit) participation
dickey@juniata.edu