Girls' Basketball Team Camp

Coach Danny Young

Program: While attending teams will have practice time, the camp's goal is to get campers to play as many games as possible in three days. Campers will play up to three games the first day, four on the second day, and two on the final day. Coaches who attend with their teams will receive an incentive package.

Facilities: Few colleges have a more attractive campus than Juniata. The 100 acres on College Hill provide a magnificent atmosphere and safe environment. Campers are housed in one of the residence halls on campus and have access to all the amenities in the residence hall.

Additional facilities available include an indoor swimming pool, a fitness center and game room.

Biography: In five seasons as Juniata's women's basketball head coach, Danny Young-Uhrich has guided the program to improved records in each of the past three seasons. Her 2007-2008 squad reached the championship game of the Landmark Conference Tournament, and earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament—just the 2nd NCAA tournament appearance in program history. The 18-10 record posted by the Eagles in 07-08 represent the second-best single season win total in program history, and the most wins since the 1979-80 season.

Three players off last year's team earned All-Conference honors, including two first team all-conference selections. In total, the Eagles have had seven All-Conference honors during Young-Uhrich's tenure and also have had one player earn Commonwealth Rookie of the Year accolades.

In five seasons at Juniata, Young-Uhrich has tallied a career record of 56-70. The Eagles have posted three straight winning seasons, the first time since the early 90's they have accomplished that feat.
