

General Policy (adapted/rewritten from Aspen Grove's general policy)

All persons in attendance of any Juniata College sponsored event or an event being hosted by Juniata College are expected to follow the law to the fullest extent. Any persons who break the law are subject to dealing with the Huntingdon Police Department and any other law enforcing group as see fit.

Juniata College's Office of Conferences and Events also has the ability to evict persons breaking campus rules while at these events. Eviction could occur from smoking/drug/alcohol violations, vandalism, or other pre-discussed actions.

It is also expected all persons in attendance of Juniata for a conference or event gives respect to all those in attendance as well as those facilitating the conference at the college.
