

500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PROTESTANT REFORMATION GERMAN CAMPUS WEEK EVENTS

Sponsored by a generous grant from the German Embassy in Washington, DC, @GermanyinUSA
All events marked with an asterisk (*) are free and open to the public.

Tuesday, October 24-Monday, November 13

Beeghly Library
Main Lobby, Basement, and the Treasure
Room on the second floor

Wednesday, October 25, 2017

4:30-6:00 pm
Sill Board Room
Von Liebig Center for Science (VLB) 2075

Tuesday, October 31, 2017

7:00 pm
Alumni Hall
Brumbaugh Academic Center (BAC) A100

Wednesday, November 1, 2017

8:30 am – 2:00 pm
Various locations on campus

Thursday, November 2, 2017

7:30 pm
Neff Lecture Hall
von Liebig Center for Science 1098

Sunday, November 5, 2017

3:00 pm
Rosenberger Auditorium
Halbritter Center for the Performing Arts

Exhibit*: Here I Stand, an exhibit of 30 posters describing Luther's life, the world he lived in, and the changes that grew out of his actions. There will also be old Bibles, works of art, books, and 3D objects related to the time period and topic on display.

Panel*: Agents of Change, part of the Diversity and Democracy series. Panelists include Nitya Chagti '19, Matthew Damschroder, Charlotte Ridge, James Roney, Martina Thomas, Abby Waldorf '18, and Rebecca Weldon.

Film*: Luther (2003)

Directed by Eric Till and starring Joseph Fiennes and Sir Peter Ustinov. Belle Tuten, Charles A. Dana professor of history, will lead a discussion after the film.

Agents of Change Day on Campus

Students from two area high schools will visit the exhibit and take part in activities related to the Reformation and other agents of change.

Lecture*: Successes and Failures as an Agent of Change: Martin Luther as Theologian and as Reformer, Dr. James Goodale, Associate Professor of History, Bucknell University. Robert Miller, Rosenberger Professor of Christian and Religious Studies, will lead the discussion.

Concert*: Juniata Concert Choir's Annual Fall Concert includes a performance of "A Mighty Fortress," a Lutheran hymn.