

Accounting, Business and Economics

Study Away Opportunities

German Lunch, taken by Sarah Worley
Associate Professor of Communication

Germany - Westphalian University of Applied Sciences

City: Gelsenkirchen

Language: German

The university focuses on practical skills, much like a trade school. There are around 8,000 students and a strong emphasis on research and sharing that research to improve the local economy. Gelsenkirchen, a former coal mining town, has switched to a more modern outlook, focusing on solar power and parks. The town also offers a zoo with a boat ride around the park.

Sample Classes:

- Financial Management
- International Marketing
- Market and Media Research
- Quantum Information Science

Germany - Münster University of Applied Sciences

Cities: Steinfurt

Language: English, German

With over 13,000 students, it is one of the largest public universities focusing on applied sciences in Germany. They partner with local businesses to provide practical skills. Courses in Master's of Accounting are also available. Münster prides itself on being the bicycle capital of Germany, while Steinfurt is known for its beautiful old castle.

Sample Classes:

- Economics
- Accounting & Finance I
- International Economic Development

Münster Bahnhof Fahrraeder, taken by Cori Timney

St. Mary's Cathedral, taken by Professor Belle Tuten,
Associate Professor of History

England - University of Lincoln

City: Lincoln

Language: English

The university is known for its strong student union and is one of the top 40 universities in England. The International Business School provides students with practical experience through partnerships with local business. The university is located in the heart of historic Lincoln on the Brayford Marina. It is a growing city, with a lively music scene.

Sample Classes:

- Global Economy
- Human Resources Management
- Principles of Marketing

England - York St John University

City: York

Language: English

York St. John began as York Diocesan Training School in 1841 and now enrolls about 6,400 students, boasting some of the top scores in teaching quality in the country. The head of the business school used to work in the non-profit sector. The campus is right in the middle of the city, a stone's throw from the famous York Minster Cathedral. Students can also visit The Shambles, a network of Victorian alleys within the city.

Sample Classes:

- International Finance
- Financial Management
- Economics and Finance
- Business of Tourism

Yorkshire Dales, taken by Kristina Karksoka '10

Photo taken by Katlin Wilson '17

England - University of Leeds

City: Leeds

Language: English

With around 30,000 students, the University of Leeds is one of the largest higher education institution in the UK. The university prides itself on its well-known academic excellence that equips students with many opportunities to succeed and makes real impact on the world in economic, cultural, and societal ways. The university offers an impressive assortment of courses in accounting, business, and economics such as those relating to business management and leadership to those within economics and finance.

Sample Classes:

- Principles of Corporate Strategy
- Intro to Microeconomics
- Diversity Management
- Innovation & Creativity

Faculty-Led Short-Term Programs Abroad

Business in China Cultural Analysis 4 cr.

Locations: Beijing, Chengdu, Shanghai

This course examines recent economic growth in China from a rigorous academic perspective, while exposing students to the business world through visits to various multinational enterprises. Students will also visit cultural and historic sites such as the Great Wall and the Jinsha Ruins. Includes: 1 credit course in the spring and a two-week, three-credit trip to China.

Business in Germany

Locations: Germany

This course examines how business is conducted in Germany and the European Union by exploring aspects of international business, economics, politics, and culture. This exploration will include an immersive two-week trip to Germany involving visits to several German businesses such as Volkswagen headquarters and Grolsch Brewery paired with culturally engaging trips to Bad Bentheim, Cologne, and Amsterdam.

Study Abroad 101 Info Sessions are held Wednesdays at 4pm @ the Oller Center Patio

Questions? Email studyabroad@juniata.edu

Visit <https://juniata.terradata.com>