

Australia - University of Newcastle

City: Newcastle

Language: English

The University of Newcastle boasts world-class research. The campus is also surrounded by the natural beauty of the Australian bush. Students are taught by active researchers in the biology field. The old city of Newcastle on the Australian coast-line offers hiking, museums, and a beautiful bird sanctuary.

Sample Classes:

- Environmental Biology
- Australian Fauna
- Biochemistry
- Wetland Ecology

Lorikeet Lunch Megan Lemmo '16

Ecuador - GAIAS

City: San Cristóbal

Language: English

The Galápagos Islands is an immersive study and research opportunity which focuses on the biology of this unique area. Students live in homestays on the San Cristóbal island and classes can lead to excursions in the rainforest or mangroves.

On the uninhabited islands, visitors can go on guided walks and see the wildlife. The program also offers scuba diving experiences.

Sample Classes:

- Tropical Ecology
- Evolutionary Biology
- Marine Mammals
- Botany

Blue-footed in the Galápagos Jennie Rinehimer '08

New Zealand - University of Otago (BCA)

City: Dunedin

Language: English

The University of Otago is New Zealand's oldest and most prestigious university. Students from around the world rate Otago's reputation and the quality of its study environment as its strongest attractions. International students can take courses in three academic divisions covering many disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. Most students find Dunedin to be a safe, relatively inexpensive city to live in that offers fun and adventure. It is surrounded by awe-inspiring scenery such as white sand beaches, forest-clad hills, and volcanic formations, and it offers great cafes, nightlife, and other fun venues to socialize downtown.

Sample Classes:

- Genetics
- Intro to Biostatistics
- Animal Biology
- Global Marine Systems

University of Otago campus

Roundhay Park Trey Mathews '16

England - University of Leeds

City: Leeds

Language: English

Around 30,000 students attend University of Leeds, which specializes in physical sciences and languages, and has a strong tradition in research. Leeds is also part of the Russell Group, a group of leading UK universities specializing in research, teaching and learning. Leeds is a welcoming city, with an active nightlife and plenty of cultural activities.

Sample Classes:

- Parasitology
- Cancer Biology
- Human Evolution
- Microbes and Man

Germany - Philipps-Universität Marburg

City: Marburg

Language: English, German

Philipps-Universität is one of the oldest universities in Germany. The strong Biology department partners with the nearby Max Planck Institute for Terrestrial Microbiology in pioneering research. Marburg is a university town, catering to the student's with frequent live music and dancing.

Sample Classes:

- Microbiology
- Invert and Vertebrate Zoology
- Conservation Biology
- Botanical Excursions

Marktplatz Dan Shaffer '17

Faculté des Lettres & Sciences Humaines

Lauren Elliott '17

France - L'Université Catholique de Lille

City: Lille

Language: French

L' Université Catholique de Lille, is a private not for profit university founded 1875 has an urban campus and located in the heart of the city, within easy walking distance of the city's cultural and commercial center. Pre-health profession students can find many courses which will fit into their POE requirements.

Sample Classes:

- Biochemistry
- Human Formation
- Molecular Genetics
- In Vitro Culture

Study Abroad 101 Info Sessions are held Wednesdays at 4pm @ the Oller Center Patio

Questions? Email studyabroad@juniata.edu

Visit <https://juniata.terradotta.com>