

Study Away Opportunities

England - York St. John University

City: York

Language: English

York St. John began as York Diocesan Training School in 1841 and now enrolls about 6,400 students, boasting some of the top scores in teaching quality in the country. It has a rapidly growing research program for Education. York itself is a quaint and historic walled city that has much to be explored including its famous York Minster cathedral, The Shambles, various cultural sites relating to its Roman and Viking background, many historic pubs and cafes, and a beautiful surrounding countryside.

Sample Classes:

- Psychology of Child Development
- Childhood and Youth Development
- The Teaching of Reading
- Education and Globalization

Taken by Tatum Poirier '21

Mi Amigo, taken by Kate Brown '14

Ecuador - Universidad San Francisco de Quito (BCA)

City: Quito

Language: Spanish

Universidad San Francisco de Quito is Ecuador's only liberal arts university. Students can learn how to teach Spanish as a second language while improving their own skills. The city of Quito is home to two million people and is known as the City of the Sun and Sky. Quito is a diverse city that includes an urban park larger than Central Park and is surrounded by mountains. Students will improve their Spanish skills while immersed in their homestays.

Sample Classes:

- Classroom Management
- Special Education
- Play and the Learner
- Environmental Education

France - L'Université Catholique de Lille

City: Lille

Language: French, English

Even though it is the largest private university in France, the professors emphasize a group based, interactive classroom. Lille is close to several historic WWI battlefields and only an hour from Paris.

Sample Classes:

- Teach French as a Foreign Language
- Educational Environment
- Philosophy of Education
- Math for Future Teachers

La Petite Venise, taken by Alexandra Baes '14

Germany - Philipps-Universität Marburg

City: Marburg

Language: English, German

International students make up 12% of the nearly 27,500 students who attend Marburg, making this a very diverse and dynamic university. It is also one of the oldest universities in Germany, founded in 1527. Marburg itself is a university town. Students can explore part of the Fairytale Path, in honor of the alumni the Brothers Grimm.

Sample Classes:

- School During/After WWII
- Youth Violence in Schools
- Bilingual Education
- Conflict Resolution in the Classroom

Marktplatz, taken by Dan Shaffer '17

England - University of Lincoln

City: Lincoln

Language: English

The university is known for its strong student union and is one of the top 40 universities in England. Learn about education in different contexts, such as physical education. It is located on Brayford Marina, the heart of historic Lincoln. Lincoln is a growing city, with a lively music scene.

Sample Classes:

- Youth in Society
- Children in Organizations
- Child Development
- Children's Rights

St. Mary's Cathedral, taken by Professor Belle Tuten

Faculty-Led Short-Term Programs Abroad

Guatemala

Spanish and Service Learning 3 cr.

This interdisciplinary course combines individualized Spanish instruction and a service learning project that you design in the city of Quetzaltenango. This full immersion program will maximize the development of your Spanish language proficiency as you meaningfully engage with Guatemalan culture. The course abroad is in May.

Dominican Republic

Cultural Learning Tour 1 cr.

Coordinated by the Office of Diversity and Inclusion and Community Engaged Learning, CLT is a service-learning trip that explores social, cultural, political, and/or environmental issues in Centro Guanin, a foundation and school in La Piedra. Students will develop a foundation of knowledge on the importance of civic and community engagement while being immersed in a new culture. The course abroad is in January.

Study Abroad 101 Info Sessions are held Wednesdays at 4pm @ the Oller Center Patio

Questions? Email studyabroad@juniata.edu

Visit <https://juniata.terradotta.com>