

View of Brno Carrington Jones '13

Czech Republic - Masaryk University

City: Brno

Language: English , Czech

The university is the 2nd largest in the Czech Republic and proud of its democratic heritage. It is diverse, with 17% international students and mindful of student needs. Brno is a lively city of cafes . The Czech republic is recognized as a European Center of Culture.

Sample Classes:

- Introduction to Applied Ethics
- Philosophy for Non-Majors
- 20th Century Czech Philosophy
- Introduction to Philosophy

New Zealand- University of Otago

City: Dunedin

Language: English

You will have unprecedented opportunities. You will be taught by international experts in their fields; you will gain a world-class qualification, and you will be able to contribute to ground-breaking research.

Sample Classes:

- Knowledge & Truth
- Metaphysical Questions
- Ethical Issues
- Critical Thinking

Taken from the University of Otago's Website

Marktplatz Dan Shaffer '17

Germany - Philipps-Universität Marburg

City: Marburg

Language: English, German

International students make up 12% of the nearly 27,500 students who attend Marburg, making this a very diverse and dynamic university. It is also one of the oldest universities in Germany, founded in 1527. Students can explore part of the Fairytale Path, in honor of the alumni the Brothers Grimm.

Sample Classes:

- The Problem of Free Will
- The Philosophy of Perception
- Theories About Evil
- Biological and Social Ethics

New Zealand - The University of Waikato

City: Hamilton

Language: English

The University of Waikato is set on a stunning 160 acre campus in Hamilton—New Zealand's fourth largest city. International students make up about 20% of the campus population. Waikato specializes in Cultural Anthropology, challenge students to reimagine their assumptions about their own societies and cultures and develop a toolkit to critically understand their changing world. Forest parks, lakes, thermal pools, and limestone caves can be found all over the region.

Sample Classes:

- Old Worlds—New Worlds
- Social and Moral Philosophy
- Nga Iho Matua: Maori Philosophy

University of Leeds, Erica McCauley '17

England - University Of Leeds

City: Leeds

Language: English

Around 30,000 students attend University of Leeds, which specializes in physical sciences and languages, and has a strong tradition in research. The University helps students find internships in their field. Leeds is also part of the Russell Group, a group of leading UK universities specializing in research, teaching and learning. Leeds is a welcoming city, with an active university population and plenty of cultural activities.

Sample Classes:

- The Good, the Bad, the Right, the Wrong
- Ethics of Life and Death
- Language: Meaning and Use

Ireland - University of Cork

City: Cork

Language: English

International students can take classes from all departments, which include classes designed to introduce them to Irish culture. Currently there is an interdisciplinary project to explore the literary and marine history of the southwest Irish coastline. The city of Cork is a rival of Dublin in both culture and size.

Sample Classes:

- Metaphysics and Mind
- Knowledge and Reality
- Feminist Philosophy
- Violence and War in a Philosophical Analysis

Cody Januszko '17 in Cork, Morgan Horell '17

Study Abroad 101 Info Sessions are held Wednesdays at 4pm @ the Oller Center Patio

Questions? Email studyabroad@juniata.edu

Visit <https://juniata.terradotta.com>