

BEACHLEY DISTINGUISHED AWARDS

Due to an additional grant by Donovan Beachley, Sr., to the Beachley Distinguished Professor award fund we are pleased to announce that starting with the 1988-89 academic year, there will be two awards: the Beachley Award for Distinguished Teaching and the Beachley Award for Distinguished Academic Service. Each award will be worth $5,000.

The selection criteria for these awards will be as follows: (The criteria are not listed in order of importance nor is it assumed that a candidate must be outstanding in all of the listed categories).

For the Beachley Award for Distinguished Teaching:

- Comprehensive knowledge of the field;
- Organization and presentation of subject matter;
- Stimulation of thinking and development of understanding;
- Arousal of interest;
- Demonstration of resourcefulness;
- Scholarly activities.

For the Beachley Award for Distinguished Academic Service:

- Distinguished research and publications;
- Outstanding services to students through advising, counseling, or development of student-related activities;
- Outstanding service to the College through curriculum or departmental development, committee activities, or college-wide activities (admissions, development, etc.);
- Development of innovative or creative programs;
- Other points of strength which the nominator desires to present.

For both awards it is expected that eligible faculty would have demonstrated many years of exemplary service.

To be considered for one of these awards a faculty member must be nominated. Nominations may be submitted by any individual or group of individuals from within the following Juniata constituencies:

1. Full-time students;
2. Alumni;
3. Faculty and/or Administration;
4. Trustees.

Each nomination must be presented in writing to the Provost and be accompanied by a signed supporting statement based upon the criteria given above.

There will be no limit to the number of times an individual may be nominated for the award except that, once a person has received the award, he or she shall not be eligible to be nominated again until a period of at least three years has elapsed.

After the closing date the nominations which have been received will be reviewed by a committee which will select the person to be the recipient of the award. The Committee will consist of the President of the College, the Provost, the President of the Student Body, and the winners of the award in the previous three years.

The recipients will receive the award at the Spring Awards Convocation. If in the opinion of the Committee no nomination is sufficiently supported, it may declare that no award should be given that particular year.
