Saturday Day of Service – Rescheduled
Join us on Tuesday, April 14th from 12:00-5:00 pm to volunteer for the Annual Spring Cleanup Event with Keep Huntingdon County Beautiful! We will be volunteering along Route 829 south of Mill Creek; the cleanup will focus on an illegal dump site nearby, an effort that was started last fall. Keep Huntingdon County Beautiful already removed nearly 2.5 tons of garbage and 40 some tires from this site, but there is still more to do. With a good volunteer turnout, we should be able to complete this site! To sign up, please follow this link: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1hRVbpLfjrYwnvvCs88hZNAVYrHolosgD2HLDf0JU2LM/viewform

Relationships come with a price tag. We must be willing to entrust ourselves to another, to let go of our autonomy and die to our independence. It is in dying to our independence that we find inter-dependence with others.

There will be a Catholic Council meeting on Monday, March 23 at 5:30 PM in BAC C212

The Little Things That Matter
By Fr. Brian Cavanaugh, TOR

Recently I heard a sports reporter interview an athlete before an upcoming play-off game. She asked him what did the team need to do to get ready for the big game? The athlete replied that they needed to take care of the little things that matter.

How true that is, it’s the “little things that matter” that make the big difference in winning big games.

Consider then, what are the “little things that matter” that your “team” has to take care of today? And, what are the “little things that matter” that you have to take care of for the sake of the team?

By the way, it is the “little things that matter” that make all the difference in business, in a successful marriage, and in one’s personal life. Today, “take care of the little things that matter.”

Liturgical Reflections

The Church stated in 1963 that the “more complete form of participation in the Mass by which the faithful, after the priest’s communion, receive the Lord’s Body from the sacrifice, is strongly endorsed.” With the third edition of the Roman Missal, the Church reiterated, “It is most desirable that the faithful, just like the Priest himself is bound to do, receive the Lord’s Body from hosts consecrated at the same Mass…” Such a practice highlights the participation in the sacrifice of the Mass actually being celebrated. Rather than regularly going to the tabernacle for Communion distribution, the Church would see this as the exception. Communion distribution should normally be those hosts consecrated at that particular Mass.

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Number 55. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, Number 85.

Liturgical Reflections

The Local Church of Altoona-Johnstown will assemble on Monday of Holy Week, March 30, at 11:00 A.M. in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament for the annual Chrism Mass. Bishop will gather with his college of priests assisted by his deacons with the assembled faithful from throughout the Diocese. Bishop will bless the Oil of the Catechumens, the Oil of the Sick, and Sacred Chrism. These consecrated oils will be used for the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders and Anointing of the Sick; also, new altars will be consecrated with Sacred Chrism. Each parish community will take a portion of the three oils back to the parish for use in the appropriate liturgical celebrations. The entire diocesan family is invited to participate in this annual Liturgy.
