Emergencies happen. When they happen far from home, it's comforting to know there's a team of multilingual professionals standing by to help.

Your Travel Assistance Program offers a variety of 24-hour-a-day services in more than 200 countries and territories worldwide—and each one is just a phone call away.

Medical Services

- Assistance finding physicians, dentists and medical facilities.
- Monitoring during a medical emergency to determine if care is appropriate or if evacuation is required.
- Free transportation,¹ when medically necessary, under medical supervision to a hospital/treatment facility or to your place of residence for treatment.
- Arrangement for your traveling companion's return home if previouslymade arrangements are lost due to your medical emergency.
- Free transportation,¹ when necessary, home for dependent children under the age of 26 who were traveling with you and are left unattended because of your hospitalization. A qualified escort will be arranged if necessary.
- Free round-trip transportation—we arrange and pay for the most direct round-trip economy flight—for one immediate family member or friend to visit you if you're traveling alone and are likely to be hospitalized for seven consecutive days.
- Replacement of medication and eyeglasses.²
- In the event of death while traveling, all necessary government authorizations and a container appropriate for transportation will be arranged and paid for, as well as return home of the remains for burial.

Other Key Services

- Pre-trip information, including visa, passport, inoculation and immunization requirements; cultural information; embassy and consulate referrals; foreign exchange rates; and travel advisories.
- Emergency message relay to and from friends, relatives and business associates.
- If requested, new travel arrangements or change of airline, hotel and car rental reservations.
- An advance of up to $500 in emergency cash after satisfactory guarantee of reimbursement from you. You are responsible for any fees associated with the transfer or delivery of funds.
- Help locating and replacing lost or stolen luggage, documents and personal possessions.
- Help locating an attorney and advancement of bail bond, where permitted by law, after satisfactory guarantee of reimbursement from you. You are responsible for attorney fees.
- Assistance with telephone interpretation in all major languages, or referral to an interpretation or translation service for written documents.

Europ Assistance (EA) will not evacuate or repatriate you if an EA-designated physician determines that such transport is not medically advisable or necessary or if the injury or illness can be treated locally.

EA provides the services in all countries. However, EA may determine that services cannot be provided in certain countries or locales because of situations such as war, natural disaster or political instability. EA will attempt to assist you consistent with the limitations presented by the prevailing situation in the area. EA cannot be held responsible for failure to provide, or for delay in providing, services when such failure or delay is caused by conditions beyond its control, including but not limited to flight conditions, labor disturbance and strike, rebellion, riot, civil commotion, war or uprising, nuclear accidents, natural disaster, acts of God, or where rendering service is prohibited by local law or regulations.

Travel Assistance is offered by Europ Assistance through Symetra Financial Corporation subsidiaries. Benefits may not be available in all states. Europ Assistance is not affiliated with any of the subsidiaries under Symetra Financial Corporation. For more information, visit www.europassistance-usa.com.
