

Juniata Resources

The resources below can support you in reaching your academic, personal, and career goals. All resources are free for full-time Juniata students. You can Google “Juniata name of resource” to get more information.

Academic & Career Resources

- Student Accessibility Services \(SAS\): Connect with SAS to self-identify as a neurodivergent student or student with a disability, to learn more about the support the office can provide, and/or to request accommodations or services. (Good 216/218)
- Writing & Speech Center: You can get feedback on writing, such as papers, or speech, such as presentations, in any stage of the process including brainstorming, drafting, revising, delivery, and editing. Sunday-Thursday 6-10pm. (Statton Learning Center 211)
- Academic Resources: You can email academicresources@juniata.edu about any of these opportunities.
 - Tutoring: Peer Content tutoring is available for several areas in Statton Learning Commons.
 - Super Study Sessions: Sundays 3-9 pm and Mondays 3-9pm in SLC 207.
 - Academic Coaching: meet one-on-one with an academic coach for help with study skills, time management, exam taking strategies, goal setting, and tips for reading and notetaking.
- Career Development: provides resources and events to assist students in identifying interests, skills, values, and strengths; connects with alumni and community partners for internships and other experiences; supports job search and graduate school applications. Connect on Handshake. (Founders, 2nd floor)
- Registrar's Office: for assistance with anything related to course registration, student records/transcripts, graduation, and academic policies. (Founders, 2nd floor)
- TSC Help Desk (Information Technology Services): Support for software, internet, printer connections, and other technology issues. (BAC C107, help@juniata.edu, 814-641-3619, <https://help.juniata.edu/>)

Wellness & Community Resources

- Glaeser Center for Counseling Services: provides in-person and remote confidential counseling for individuals, couples, groups, drug and alcohol recovery. Facilitates support groups for healthy eating, LGBTQ+ and more, provides assessments and short-term therapy. (1610 Moore Street)
- Health Services: Appointments and drop-in care for primary and preventative health care provided by Broad Top Health and Wellness. (Sill Business Center, corner of 14th and Moore Streets)
- Student Financial Planning: will guide you through the financial aid process. (Enrollment Center)
- Bursar's Office: questions about student billing (Dana Center, top floor)
- Campus Ministry: The Campus Ministry Office offers programs, resources, support, and opportunities for spiritual reflection and growth to students, faculty, and staff. We are committed to interfaith and worldview dialogue. (Oller Center)
- Access, Opportunity & Leadership Development plans programming to create a campus where all people are respected, supported, and able to thrive. (Ellis Hall)
- SPoT (Safe Place to Talk) provides free and confidential support and programming in all areas of interpersonal violence including sexual assault, healthy vs. unhealthy relationship, stalking, harassment, and more. unhealthy relationship, stalking, harassment, and more (Ellis 113)
- Campus and Residential Life: through the Resident Assistants and professional staff, Campus and Residential Life connects with students on how to get involved on campus through clubs and events, navigate living in community, and aids students in navigating campus systems. (Ellis Hall, 2nd Floor).
- Public Safety after hours emergencies, transportation to ER, keys locked in car, and many other forms of help (814-641-3636, 24 hours a day)