Cultural Analysis (CA)

CA courses deal with human culture in its various forms: philosophic, literary, artistic, economic, social, political and scientific. Each course focuses on the thoughts and behaviors of individuals and groups and how relationships between ideas and institutions have shaped societies. Approaches include examining the historical development of a given culture over time; analyzing encounters or conflicts between two cultures or societies; and studying the variety of interactions among individuals and sub-groups within a given culture or society.

Write a brief paragraph below explaining how the course meets the above CA parameters. Include any information you have about the course, such as course description, syllabus, etc.
